Alberta Nickels Going To U.S., Says MD Official

Small vending machines offering candy for a penny and peanuts for a nickel are appearing in Edmonton, with labels which indicate part of the proceeds are to be used to help children with muscular problems.

Commenting on this situation, Arthur Minden, J.C., Toronto, president of the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada, said: "I would like to make it clear that vending machines now appearing in Canadian centres, with part of the proceeds directed to the organization known as MEND, are in no way connected with MDAC's work on behalf of Canada's victims of Muscular Dystrophy. MEND is the slogan used by an American organization. The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada does not use the services of any paid solicitors nor lend its name to organizations who raise funds on a percentage basis."

Mr. Minden pointed out that during the past eight years, MDAC has built up a medical research program in Canada embracing 50 projects in 20 universities and medical centres. "Funds to support this program have been raised by public contributions solicited by local volunteers, particularly The Fire fighters who have endorsed MDAC's work and provided remarkable leadership. They have been strongly supported by many different community organizations and it would be unfortunate if any confusion is now aroused in the public's mind."

Separate Court For Traffic Offenders, Criminals Asked

There should be a change in the court system which allows an Alberta motorist who commits a minor traffic offence to be hauled into court along with other criminals.

Police Chief M. E. F. Anthony of Edmonton sees the need for special traffic courts to separate traffic offenders from criminals.

He said a review of all traffic laws should be undertaken and enforcement carried out by all enforcement agencies, not just the traffic department.

Law enforcement has not declined, but there appears to be a general contempt of the law and traffic of officers by the public.

"If we aren't going to enforce laws, let them be repealed by our governments and let us live under the law of the jungle," he said.

Chief Anthony stressed a need for more driver education and joint action in this direction by law enforcement agencies, the traffic courts and provincial legislatures. Clarification of statutes and higher minimum penalties were needed.

"A violator should be educated or ruled off the road as a menace."

People who worry about the books that young people read might take a squint at some of the magazines.

Men Pulled From Icy Waters

While Hugh McCall and his brother-in-law, Ewalt Gabert, were fishing on Lake Wabamun recently an aluminum boat with an over-powered motor overturned about 100 yards from them.

Mr. McCall had just pulled anchor and was going to change locations. In a matter of seconds they were able to reach E. Martin and N. Bosse, both of Edmonton, and pull them from the icy waters of the lake. The accident victims were then taken to the McCall cabin for dry clothes and warm coffee.

Funeral Rites For Mrs. Anna Ollikka

The funeral service for Mrs. Anna Marie Ollikka of Waskatenau was held in the Waskatenau United Church on Thursday, May 3 at 1:30 p.m. The service was conducted by Mrs. Howie.

Mrs. Ollikka passed away at the home of her sister in Edmonton on Monday morning, April 30, where she had been spending a few days.

Mrs. Ollikka was born in Vehorg province in Finland. She came to Canada in 1913 with her small son Tauno to join her husband, who had taken up a homestead in the Hollow Lake district north of Waskatenau, and together they braved the hardships of the early days on the homestead.

Her husband, Ernest, predeceased her in 1952 and she carried on with the farm until 1956, when she retired and came to live in the village of Waskatenau, where she resided until the time of her death.

She leaves four children, one son, Tauno of Hollow Lake; three daughters, Mrs. T. (Elvie) Hansen of Hollow Lake, Mrs. B. (Elna) Klem and Mrs. Helen Smigorsky, both of Waskatenau; eleven grandchildren; three brothers, Henry Laukanen of Hollow Lake, Toivo of California and one brother and four sisters in Finland.

Mrs. Ollikka had never returned to her native land, but had often talked about going.

The esteem and respect in which Mrs. Ollikka was held by her many friends was indicated by the large crowd in attendance at the service. Burial took place at the Sprucefield Cemetery, where her husband is buried.

Explorer Girls Enjoy Outing

REDWATER — The girls of the Explorer group of Moore Memorial United Church had their first outing of the summer season when they gathered for a hike to the Girl Guide camp site just north of town.

Under the leadership of Mrs. John Orey and Mrs. Ed Archer, the girls enjoyed an evening of roasting weiners and singing camp songs. This plus their successful candy sale, has made May a very happy month for the group.

Garden Graph

Outmaneuvering Moles

Most gardeners are horrified when they see their beautiful lawn raised up in ridges running in various directions, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph. These ridges are underground tunnels made by moles.

The moles are looking for food in the form of luscious grubs, worms or any other insects in the soil. Japanese beetles, May beetles, June bugs, centipedes, spiders are special delicacies for them.

The question often raised is whether moles do more good than harm. They eat as much as their own weight each day in soil insects.

Moles can be eliminated by getting rid of the grubs in the soil. Then they will look elsewhere for food. Grub-proofing can be done at any time except when the soil is frozen. Now is an ideal time.

Chlordane and dieldrin are most often used. They can be sprayed on the lawn in liquid form or spread on in dry form with a spreader. In fact, they can be mixed with the fertilizer and two jobs can be combined in one operation. Some lawn fertilizers contain grub-proofing chemicals, just as some crabgrass preventers do. One grub-proofing should last for seven years.

If you disapprove of using poisoning chemicals, use the milky disease spore powder. It is not harmful to humans, pets or children. It is a bacteria that spreads very slowly, making the soil toxic to grubs.

After the moles have been killed, iron out the ridges with a roller.

Church Members Aid Victims Of Fire

The members of St. Vladimir's Ukrainian Church in Vegreville are sponsoring a fire disaster fund in aid of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Barlott and family who lost their home and belongings in a fire the evening of Mother's Day, May 13.

The family was attending a concert in Vegreville National Hall at the time of the mishap. When the flames were noticed by the neighbors it was too late to save anything.

At present the family is living at the Harry Barlott home across the road.

Donations will be accepted at the following places: Cash Foods IGA, Muzyka & Tunis Dept. Store, Stanley Agencies, Joe's Plumbing, Mike Semeluk, treasurer.

The group is sponsoring a benefit dance to be held in the National Hall at Vegreville on Wednesday, May 30. Everyone is welcome.

Ukrainian Women's Society Honors Mothers At Dinner

LAC LA BICHE — The Ukrainian Orthodox Women's Society reports that the Mother's Day dinner which was held in the Memorial Hall Sunday, May 13 was well attended by many families. Quite a number remained for the program honoring mothers.

Children taking part in the Ukrainian recitations were Melvin and Marvin Stefin, Brian Lobay, Luba Zubricki, and little four-year-old Donna Beniuk. Luba Zubricki danced a Ukrainian dance in the native Ukrainian costume. A group of children sang the ever beautiful song, "Mother."

The two Strashok girls played a piano duet, "Theme from Moldan." Another beautiful instrumental, "Mother Macree," was played by Lynn Breaux and Joanne Hamar.

Rev. Zubricki delivered a lengthy and interesting talk to the mothers on "The Great Love in Past History." Mrs. Strashok had a Mother's Day message for all the mothers present, her topic, "What is Mother?" She also expressed her sincere thanks to all the women who donated things and all those who worked so hard to make Mother's Day dinner possible.

The men report fair returns for the raffle, which they sponsored with the ladies donating the prizes. The three lucky tickets drawn were won by the following:

Mrs. Lou Hamilton, beautiful patchwork wool quilt; second prize, Mr. Yanew of Edmonton, attractive three-piece crocheted chesterfield set; third prize, a wool rug, went to little Brian Tkachuk. A door prize ticket was drawn and Luba Zubricki was the lucky winner of a triple cake server.

THE TRUTH

"You've already had leave, Ferguson, to see your wife off on a journey — to attend your mother-in-law's funeral — for your little girl's measles — your boy's christening. What is it now?"

Anglican Church News

LAC LA BICHE — On Saturday, May 12 the Young People sponsored a Mother's Day tea in the church basement.

The occasion was made a great success by the children themselves, and the generous effort of the adult leaders.

The Young People wish to thank the many people who made their first tea such a success.

Recently a gas range was purchased and installed in the church basement as a gift of the Young People. It is now possible to enjoy greatly extended activities in the social life of the Church.

Funeral Rite Held For War Veteran

FORK LAKE — James Henry Whelen Jr. passed away in the Col. Newburn hospital, Edmonton, May 13th at the age of 44 years.

Jimmy was born at Vilna, Oct. 11, 1918. He is survived by his daughter Jeanette of Edmonton; his father, James Whelen Sr. of Fork Lake; two sisters, Mrs. Eva Anderson of Calgary and Mrs. Ernest Blais of Edmonton, two brothers, Edward of Fork Lake and Chester of New Westminster, B.C.

He was one of the first boys in this district to enlist for active service in World War II and was twice wounded in action. This past winter he took the Militia survival course in Calgary.

After his honorable discharge from the army, Jimmy took up a farm in this district, which he operated for several years. He then went to Edmonton to work and came to his farm occasionally.

It was said among his friends and neighbors that Jimmy never refused to lend a helping hand to those in need. This tribute was shown by the large number of friends who attended his funeral.

Services were conducted by the Rev. A. Thomas of the United Church in Howard & McBride Chapel.

A recent publication, "Laws of Interest to the Women of Alberta," has been issued by the Government of Alberta. It deals with a general statement of certain laws. Over the past one hundred years, women have brought themselves to the position of being recognized as entitled to equal consideration of men. This change has resulted in many changes in the law.

Did you know that a woman has the same rights of a man? Property may be held in the name of one or more persons. Where more than one person has an interest in the same property, they may own it as joint tenants or as tenants in common. Joint tenancy is most commonly used by married couples in owning their home. Each has an equal interest in the property and it cannot be sold or mortgaged without each owner's consent. On the death of one of the owners, his interest immediately and automatically passes to the surviving owner or owners upon filing with the Land Titles Office of proof of death. It follows from this that an interest in land as a joint tenant, cannot be disposed by will. With tenancy in common, a person can dispose of his interest by will.

Any mentally competent person of twenty-one years of age, or if married nineteen years of age, may make a will. The ordinary form of will is signed at the end by the testator in the presence of two witnesses who must sign in the presence of the testator and each other's presence. The witnesses must not be persons or spouses of persons who will receive anything under the terms of the will. Another form of will, known as a holograph will, is sometimes used. This is a will that is completely in the handwriting of the testator and needs no witnesses.

Great care must be taken in wording a will to ensure that it has the legal effect intended because when the time comes to give effect to it, the testator is not available to explain exactly what he meant and it is too late to make any changes or corrections in it. Because of the many legal problems involved, a will prepared by a person unfamiliar with the details of the laws relating to wills and the transmission of property may be ineffective to dispose of the testator's property. For example, a provision that is of uncertain meaning or that may result in property being tied up for an indefinite period can be invalid. In consequence a will prepared by a person without full knowledge of the relevant laws is not to be recommended.

A will may be revoked at any time, either by making a new will or by destroying the old one. A person's will is automatically revoked upon his or her marriage unless the will specifically states that it is being made in contemplation of that particular marriage. A will may also lose its effectiveness, wholly or partially, by the death of persons named as beneficiaries or by the testator during his lifetime disposing of property which he has devised in the will.

Wills are changed by making a complete new will or making a codicil which is a document in the form of a will amending the original will.

When a person dies without a will, or leaves property that is not disposed of by a will, the Intestate Succession Act provides how the estate is to be distributed. If a man leaves a widow and children the widow receives one-third and two-thirds is divided equally among the children. If a child is dead but is survived by children of his own then the children receive the share of their parent.

Little Dorothy was watching mother take a pie from the oven. As the steam escaped thru the openings in the top the cover slightly raised up Dorothy suddenly exclaimed, "Look mother, the pie is breathing."

Alberta Foster Parents Pay To Remain Unchanged In 1962

Rates paid to foster parents will be increased in Toronto next month in an attempt to find more foster homes for children under the care of the Metro Toronto Children's Aid Society. However, rates paid by the Alberta Department of Welfare to foster parents will remain constant.

Payments in Toronto will be raised from $40 to $45 a month for children under 12 and from $50 to $60 for those over 12. Additional subsidies will be made in special cases, and the total cost will run about $11,000 additional a month.

Rates in Alberta now stand at $1.30 a day for children under six years of age, $1.40 for those of 6 to 12, $1.60 for 12 to 16 years old, and $2 (which is to include spending money) for those over 16. The money comes from taxes and is granted to the City Welfare Department from the Provincial Department of Welfare.

No change in rates is being contemplated, stated a City Welfare representative. "We don't want people who are in it for money," she explained.

The current rates are sufficient, she claimed. In fact, she said, most people can make a little each month.

Even so, more foster homes are needed by Edmonton City Welfare, especially for groups of three children, Roman Catholic children, children of other races and teenagers.

Foster homes care for children who are temporary wards of the Welfare Department due to neglect or domestic problems which would prevent them from receiving proper care in their own homes.

Then there is the intolerance of a minority which nobody ever hears anything about.

Ghost town or just asleep?

On the surface, a ghost town and a sleeping community look much alike. But there's a tremendous difference beneath the surface... a paused but healthy economy... a population asleep but ready for the next day.

Another invisible factor, just below the surface, is insurance. Insurance in its many forms protects the community when it is awake or asleep — against the risk of loss from fire, accident, theft, liability, storm and the multitude of other hazards we all face from day to day.

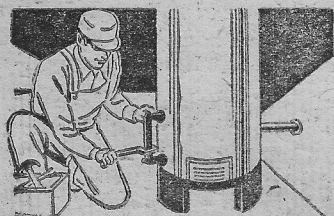

Without the protection which insurance provides, most thriving Canadian municipalities might well be ghost towns. Without that protection — which comes only when the catastrophic losses of the few can be spread among the many — most of the enterprises which make our Canadian centres prosperous today could not have been undertaken. The tremendous individual risks of sudden disaster would have made such enterprises too one-sided a gamble with fate.

WIN GUY BLAKE TROPHY:

Vilna Fish And Game Are Trailblazers

The Vilna Fish and Game Association are trailblazers. They're leading the way for other small clubs and getting province-wide recognition on top of this. As he expressed these words, Ben Rosnau, president of the Alberta FGA, presented the Guy Blake Trophy to George Viteychuk, president of the Vilna group. The trophy is awarded for the group having the best improvement of grounds in the province.

The Bruderheim provincial president said the trophy indicated the hospitality given to the public and added that at the Alberta FGA annual meeting he spoke on behalf of the Vilna Association and showed some movies taken at the grand opening of the Bonnie Lake project.

Camille Etheir, executive member of the Alberta FGA and president of the Willingdon FGA, said his local would strive hard to win the trophy this year.

He said Willingdon will hold a grand opening of its Sandy Lake project in July and will invite neighboring locals to the event. Swim lessons will be offered and a Vilna girl will be hired to take care of the water safety campaign.

George Viteychuk, who was re-elected president at the meeting last week, gave his annual report, in which he thanked the members for their co-operation over the past season.

He mentioned that a dressing room had been built for boys at Bonnie Lake beach, three miles from Vilna, the grounds had been gravelled and the grand opening July 16 was successful. There was good representation from Willingdon, Waskatenau, Warspite, Smoky Lake and Lac La Biche Associations. Fred Leskiw represented the County of Smoky Lake; Mayor Alec Krawchuk represented Vilna; Hon. Ray Reiersen represented government, and Mr. Rosnau, the Provincial Fish and Game body.

Last year the Vilna FGA provided facilities for the Red Cross swimming lessons in water safety and 81 children were instructed between July 1 and 15. The Vilna group was on the honor list for the membership drive for the provincial group.

"We as the Vilna Fish and Game group thank the County of Smoky Lake for graveling the Bonnie Lake beach grounds," said Mr. Viteychuk. He also thanked members and non-members alike for their support.

Bill Kureluk, secretary, gave the financial report, which showed the Vilna Association had $337 on hand at the end of the year.

Elected president was Mr. Viteychuk, vice-president, Steve Pacholek; secretary-treasurer, Mr. Kureluk; members of the membership drive committee, William Habiak, William Greckol, Leslie Leeck and Alec Krawchuk; executive committee, Jorgan Hansen, Steve Semaka and Bob Redner.

Under new business, the Vilna members decided to build a dressing room for girls at Bonnie Lake beach; build another boat landing west of the present pier; erect signs indicating no boats should land by the swimming pier, but only at the boat landing; to mark a boundary for water skiing; erect speed signs to the grounds; erect a sign to let to build bleachers back of the back-the public know that the Vilna FGA is in charge of the grounds; fence off the grounds near the swimming area to prevent cars coming too close, and place 18-inch-high posts on the ground.

The Vilna group gave full support to the Vilna Baseball Club's wish to top of the ball diamond and the group will supply the ball club with nails and the ball club will supply the planks.

A delegation from the Boy Scout committee asked the Vilna FGA to buy a Cub flag for the Scouts. The Victoria Trail Boy Scout Camp is held at the lake and embraces Fort Saskatchewan, Waskatenau, Smoky Lake, Vilna, Spedden, Thorhild, Redwater and Egremont.

Mr. Rosnau said the Alberta FGA has blanket insurance to cover anyone getting hurt at the lake. There is also a possibility of having some pheasants planted if a letter is written to the chairman of the Alberta FGA.

$30,000 Loss Sustained When Mannville Alta Theatre Burns

MANNVILLE — The Alta Theatre, one of the chain of May theatres, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Charles May of Mannville, was destroyed by fire recently.

Estimate of loss is $30,000. Cause of the fire is believed to have been a short circuit.

Redwater Golf Club In Sound Financial Shape

The Redwater Community Golf Club financial statement presented at the spring meeting covers April 15, 1961 to March 31, 1962.

Bank balance as of March 31, 1961, $1,112.

INCOME

Raffle, $672; membership dues, $2,470; green fees, 1,213; misc., $47; golf equipment, $1,875; for a total of $6,277.

EXPENSES

Wages, $1,863; maintenance, $802; course equipment, $1,498; golf equipment, $2,210; misc., $617; for a total of $6,990.

Bank balance as of March 31, 1962, was $396. Deficit for season was $713.

This deficit is not serious, according to the secretary-treasurer, as a truer picture is arrived at when income and expenses are examined at the end of the season.

Methods of Seeding

By Dr. R. R. Cairns

Several farmers have phoned the Soils Research Sub-station at Vegreville to ask if we had stated that we had obtained better yields from seeding with certain seeders. Apparently some dealers have misunderstood our findings.

We have actually found the press drill and the one-way seeder and packer about equally good and the hoe press drill inferior insofar as crop yields are concerned. There is nothing in our test results to show that any farmer need buy other than the standard machinery he has been using. Special circumstances may indicate the need for special equipment but such need could not be based on our results.

CHECKING CHILDREN'S dresses for quality and price is Mrs. Mary Woytkiw, shown with her daughter Frances, 3½. Stan and Lauri Perchaluk, owners of the new Robinson Store in Smoky Lake, explain the values offered at competitive prices. The new store reflects the amazing growth taking place in the town this year, such as a new hospital, senior citizens home, hotel addition, liquor store.

James Campbell Elected President At Meeting Of Redwater Lions Club

At the last regular meeting of the Redwater Lions Club held May 14 at Ann's Cafe, the following slate of officers was elected for the 1962-63 business year: President, James Campbell; vice-president, Malcolm MacKay; treasurer, Steve Vavra; secretary, Metrol Koziol; Lion tamer, William Sawka; tail twister, Harvey Warkentin; and asst. tail twister, Ronald Manning.

Following the election, Past President Peter Chaba thanked all Lions members for their support and stated that the outgoing executive would do all in their power to assist the new officers during the coming season.

During Redwater Town Beautification Week the Lions were able to plant 81 American elm trees along several of the town boulevards. It is felt that next year the remaining boulevards not presently freed can be completed, including several tree replacements. A complete renovation of the southside Lions Playground has been initiated also and should be finalized soon. Other pending projects include the revival of the tennis court, the organization of a playground for the north side of the town and the re-installation of street markers.

Presently, a Stew Supper is being organized in honor of the four Red-water boys' hockey team and their coaches. This is being held in the Legion Hall May 17 with the Lions members serving.

Lions Newspaper Bingo tickets are still available and can be obtained from any Lions member. Please support this worthy venture as all proceeds will be used for charitable purposes.
